

Buckeye Air Fair Aviation Week soars ahead

Buckeye Air Fair Aviation Week kicks off today! Join us for a week long aviation adventure hosted by Mayor Eric Orsborn. A new video will be posted every day to YouTube, Facebook and Instagram, with a look into military aviation at Luke Air Force Base as our first in the lineup.

Learn more about the Buckeye Airport and the importance of aviation in our community with the following videos posting each morning throughout the week:

- Luke Air Force Base F-35 pilot and crew chief
- WestMEC aviation technology programs
- Copperstate aspiring Aviators
- SciTech aerospace innovation activities
- Buckeye Airport past and present
- Fear Boss aerobatics stunt pilot

Follow us on social media to take flight on this new journey in 2021 and mark your calendars for Feb. 11-13, 2022 when we'll be flying high above the crowd again at the Buckeye Air Fair!
